

Clothing Depot Notice

For the past 10 years College Park Covenant Church has operated the Clothing Depot. Since it's start, the mandate of the Clothing Depot has been to meet needs in providing clothing and household articles, to encourage the sharing of resources, and to extend hospitality and generosity to others. We have been blessed to meet and have relationship with many people over the years.

Over the past year we have experienced significant changes: We have seen a sharp decrease in the amount of clothing that is being donated, and we have also had a decrease in the number of volunteers that are now available to assist with sorting the clothes and running the Depot. After much discussion, attempts at problem solving and prayer we have come to the decision that it is time to end the Clothing Depot. We do not make this decision lightly. There is sadness as we see something that we highly value come to an end.

We desire to continue meeting needs in the community, stewarding resources, extending hospitality and generosity with respect and dignity in a new way. We are excited to see how that develops in the coming months.

There will be two more Clothing Depots: 1:00pm to 3:00pm September 4th and our last Clothing Depot will be Tuesday November 6th. We would like to invite you to come on Nov 6th, not only for clothes and coffee, but for an opportunity to participate in a goodbye party. We want to celebrate this shared experience that we have had. Hope to see you there.
